al.,

24-CV-7106 (DEH)

ORDER

DALE E. HO, United States District Judge:

Parties in this case are engaged in litigation in various other actions in this District, including City of New York v. Lopez, No. 21 Civ. 7862, which is before Judge Oetken. A letter filed on June 30, 2025, in that case states “the parties have tentatively agreed to a global settlement, which will resolve all of the pending litigations between them.” See Letter Mot. for Extension of Time to Complete Discovery at 1, ECF No. 141. The case currently pending before this Court, Lopez v. New York City Tourism + Conventions, Inc. et al., is referenced in the letter filed in City of New York v. Lopez, and the letter notes that “the tentative settlement will result in the dismissal of” both cases (as well as a case before Judge Koeltl, Lopez v. Adams, No. 24 Civ. 7808).

By July 29, 2025, the parties in this action shall file a joint letter stating whether the tentative global settlement referenced in the June 30, 2025 letter would, in fact, resolve the above-captioned case.

SO ORDERED.
